

Tri-Valley

Opportunity Council, Inc.

Employee Spotlight

Cindy Gjerswold

Assistant Director of Transportation Programs
Crookston, MN

What's your name? Cindy Gjerswold

What's your title and location at Tri-Valley? Assistant Director of Transportation

What's your favorite thing about working in your position? Working with my supervisors and staff. We have a great group of people at transportation.

Before working at Tri-Valley, what was the most unusual or interesting job you've ever had? Working as a ski lift operator out in Colorado.

Tell us about your family and/or pets. I've been married 25 years to my husband Darren. I have a son Andy and a yellow lab Bella and I have a grand dog named Bear.

Do you have any hobbies? I clean a lot.

If you could learn to do anything, what would it be? To be a Veterinarian

If you won the lottery, what is the first thing you would do? Retire

When you have 30 minutes of free time, how do you pass the time? Go for a walk or bike ride.

What's your favorite indoor/outdoor activity? Pickle Ball, goose hunting, and golf.

What chore do you absolutely hate doing? Dusting.

If you could meet anyone, living or dead, who would you meet and why? I would like to meet my grandfather who had passed before I was born. He came from Ukraine and settled out in North Dakota. He started farming and raised 14 kids. He would have some great stories.

What three traits define you? Caring, funny, happy most of the time.

If you had to eat one meal, every day for the rest of your life, what would it be? Pizza

What are some things on your bucket list? Go to Alaska and Australia.

Anything else you would like to add? Take time to be with family, life is short play hard.