Tri-Valley's Development Fund

Opportunity Council, Inc.

Our Goal is to positively impact the community with funds available.

Where does my contribution go?

- Many grants require a match, and having funds available from the Development Committee would provide new opportunities!
- With your contributions, Tri-Valley could borrow from itself for projects, facilities, etc. if there was a need.
- Your contributions could be used to meet short-term obligations and provide temporary cash-flow.
- Your contributions would provide funds as government funding requirements change.
- Your contributions would provide added resources to partnerships.
- Your contributions would provide added resources for Tri-Valley staff in crisis.

Recently, the Development Committee has...

- Sent a donation to the National Child Safety Council to provide child safety and drug prevention education materials as well safety information for our seniors.
- Sent donations to Tri-Valley staff that had experienced an emergency/hardship in 2023.
- Sent a donation to the Crookston Early Childhood Initiative.
- Continued lobbying efforts crucial to serving those in our communities that need our help. Donations were given to the Minnesota Community Action Partnership (MinnCAP).
